This case came before the Court for a plea hearing on November 21, 2019. Assistant United States Attorney Elizabeth Rabe appeared and represented the Government, and Jennifer Dowdell Armstrong, Esq., appeared and represented Defendant. Defendant was present with counsel. Prior to the hearing, the parties entered into a proposed binding plea agreement. Under the terms of the plea agreement, Defendant agreed to plead guilty as charged in the Information currently pending against him, which charges him with Willfully making and subscribing a tax return that was false or fraudulent as to a material matter in violation of Title 26 U.S.C. §7206(1).

During the plea hearing, the undersigned had the opportunity to address Defendant in open court and to inform Defendant of all rights and privileges as set forth in Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(b)(1). Further, the undersigned carefully inquired of Defendant regarding his understanding of the agreement, as well as his competence to understand the agreement. Having fully inquired, the undersigned Judicial Officer finds that Defendant's tendered plea of guilty as charged in the Information was knowing, intelligent, and voluntary. Additionally, based upon the statement of facts, which were read into the record and affirmed by Defendant, the undersigned finds that there is a sufficient factual basis for finding that Defendant is in fact guilty of Willfully making and subscribing a tax return that was false or fraudulent as to a material matter in violation of Title 26 U.S.C. §7206(1).

Based upon the foregoing, it is RECOMMENDED that the District Court accept Defendant's plea of guilty as charged in the Information currently pending against him and find him guilty as charged of Willfully making and subscribing a tax return that was false or fraudulent as to a material matter in violation of Title 26 U.S.C. §7206(1).

Pending the Court's acceptance of Defendant's guilty plea, Defendant has been referred to the Probation Department for a pre-sentence investigation and report.
